Description

This card is one of the range of Easel cards - so called by the way they sit on their "backs" in the manner of an easel. This particular card features a design using a Morehead girl in blue. The image is matted onto blue before being layered up onto a complimentary coloured background. On the base of the card is a blue "stop" strip which holds the card open for display.

Although not shown, a personalised plate can be provided in front of the strip, for a small additional fee - please ensure you contact me prior to buying should you wish this.

The card comes with a matching handmade box.
